Love comes quickly
There ain't no easy way out
I wish you were with me
'Cause honey, I always doubt you

Oh, you should have tried to make me want you
I should have tried not to deny you
We could have laughed all night at my apartment

And oh, every time I see you

Death comes quickly
There ain't no easy way out
You can't come with me
But honey, you can always doubt it

And oh, you should have tried to make me want you
I should have tried not to deny you
We could have laughed all night at my apartment

And oh, every time I see you
And it makes me want to, to be near you
And I said, oh, every time I see you
And it makes me want to, to be near you

Oh, I know I should have tried
Tried and come back home to you
'Cause I don't need a desperate situation
To know what to do

Oh, I know I should have tried
Tried and come back home to you
'Cause I don't need a desperate situation
To know what to do

And oh, every time I see you
And it makes me want to, to be near you
And I said, oh, every time I see you
And it makes me want to, to be near you
