Angel came down from heaven yesterday stayed with me long enough to rescue me And she told me a story yesterday about the sweet love between the moon and the deep blue sea
Then she spread her wings high over me she said shes goin' now, come back tomorrow And I said, "Fly on my sweet angel, fly on through the sky Fly on my sweet angel tomorrow Im gonna be by your side"

Fly away, high away, fly away

Sure enough this morning came unto me silver wings silhouetted against a childs sunrise And my angel she said unto me Todays the day for you to rise Take my hand, youre gonna be my man, youre gonna rise
Then she took me high over yonder

And I said, "Fly on my sweet angel, fly on through the
sky
Fly on my sweet angel forever I will be by your side"
And I said, "Fly on my sweet angel, fly on through the
sky
Fly away, come back another day
