I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in

I know you through, you show, you grow and then you leave
Why do at all if that's, what to believe
But if you know, than go, don't loath your place to be Imagine all those fish out in the sea

Maybe it's time for me to use my mind, to use my mind
Use my mind
There is still time for me to use my mind, to use my mind
Use my mind

I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in

But if you loose, don't stop, just walk, just leave it be
If getting past this means, just passing me
Just blame the rest if you're not all you wish to be Just get that new coat and dive in to that sea

Maybe it's time for me to use my mind, to use my mind
Use my mind
mind
Use my mind

I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
I could be fine all the time, fine all the time

I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
I could be fine all the time, fine all the time
But you ran out through the back, so I keep it in
