addicted to razors

lashes to saviors

glued to the monitor

trained behavior

reduced to a number

mechanic enslavement

a virtual prison

selected detainment

a gradual nightmare

suicidal impulse

a cycle of habit

undeniable loss

breathing by wire

a network of heroes

processing data

as ones and zeros

carry me through the wires

bury me in the screen

shift me into this fixation

cling to the machine

this is now your world

and you barely made it
did you think that it would cradle you
until you were asleep forever?
until you were asleep forever?
