Please don't turn your eyes my way
They're unnerving and undeniable
Underneath all the work that you do
I can feel the real you
I can see the real you

You're a jewel to sparkle around my neck
The fragrant scent of morning I cannot forget
You're a jewel to sparkle around my neck
The fragrant scent of morning I cannot forget

Smiling wide we're still afraid
You're removable in recollection
Underneath everything that you do
I can feel the real you
I can see inside you

You're a jewel to sparkle around my neck
The fragrant scent of morning I cannot forget
You're a jewel to sparkle around my neck
The fragrant scent of morning I cannot forget

You're a jewel to sparkle
You're a jewel to sparkle

Through my mind you wander
Spell to bind forever
Pain and ease together
Love can pull us under

You're a jewel to sparkle around my neck
The fragrant scent of morning I cannot forget
You're a jewel to sparkle around my neck
The fragrant scent of morning I cannot forget
