[Alioth:]

Sweet whispers departed with the wind
Reducing laments (and steel sound) to silence
The hybrid breeze whispered in harmonious minds
And penetrated labyrinths

A new world, a shining dawn in time,
Now the veil is being drawn back

Frailty is the dark and cruel destiny
Which the track of fear leads into
In the depths of strange and unconcerned minds
silence fades out,
It's the track of fear
The sweet breeze of power faded slowly,
Lighting their feebleness
Anguished dark eyes clamoured for mercy
Watching an unexpected end

A new world, a shining dawn in time,
Now the veil is being drawn back

Frailty is the dark and cruel destiny
Which the track of fear leads into
In the depths of strange and unconcerned minds
silence fades out,
It's the track of fear

[Zorbion:]

Breaking the silence
You have freed a stagnant river
Where will the track of imagination lead us...

You have captured the virtue of ignorance
You have freed dread
