If a fool like you-ou-ou, could listen to a fool like me-ee-ee
And if the leaves on the trees could stop shakin' in the wi-ind
If a fool like you-ou-ou, could listen to a fool like me-ee-ee
Maybe baby we could stop long enough to begi-in

Cryin' with a millionaire-aire-aire, is like laughin' with the old street bum Send him up town to the colleseum, promising ki-ingdom come
And when the baby cri-i-ies, in the middle of a prayer
He's sayin' hurry up daddy, hurry up, because we're a-almost there

I tell you, if a fool like you-ou-ou, could listen to a fool like me-ee-ee
And if the leaves on the trees could stop shakin' in the wi-ind
If a fool like you-ou-ou, could listen to a fool like me-ee-ee
Ahh, maybe baby we could stop long enough to begi-in

Now the tempers get hot, oh and the fingers they sha-ake
Seems there ain't enough sunshine around to keep a man wide awake
When the artist gets mad, he can take up his bru-ush
But when the crippled man loses his faith, well, who's gonna give him a crutch

I tell you if a fool like you-ou, could listen to a fool like me-ee-ee
And if the leaves on the trees could stop shakin' in the wi-ind
If a fool like you-ou, could listen to a fool like me
Maybe baby we could stop long enough to begi-in

Now the window said why, but the door says now
And there's no use askin' questions when you can walk

Though they say in time, we shall be brought around

Well when 90s stories are hammering, they'll calm down

Oh, if a fool like you-ou, could listen to a fool like me-ee-ee

And if the leaves on the trees could stop shakin' in the wind

If a fool like you-ou, could listen to a fool like me-ee-ee

Ahh, maybe baby we could stop long enough
