Bring it back. Bring it back. Bring it back again

I cruise around with the radio on

Make me feel alright

Make me feel alright

Wide open highway and the sun going down

Make me feel alright

Make me feel alright

I grab my guitar and pick out a song

You wear that pretty dress we never could go wrong

We had no money but never seem to care

Our love took us everywhere

Bring it back again

Bring it back. Bring it back. Bring it back again

Bring it back again

I cruise around in a rag top ride

Make me feel alright

Make me feel alright

But now I got no one by my side

Make me feel alright

Make me feel alright

Though I never share my memories

No one by my side to comfort me

I need your little hand to hold in mine

Got to hold you all the time

Bring it back again

Bring it back. Bring it back. Bring it back again

Bring it back again

Is it any wonder, why I love you so

Oh you were my first love

When your arms met mine

You just stole my heart for all time

Bring it back again

Bring it back. Bring it back. Bring it back again

Bring it back again

I cruise around with the radio on

Make me feel alright

Make me feel alright

Wide open highway with the sun going down

Make me feel alright

Make me feel alright

Though I know I'm the only one to blame

I've had enough of this sorrow and pain

I know that deep down you still feel the same

Bring me your love back again

Bring it back again

Bring it back. Bring it back. Bring it back again

Bring it back again

Come on bring it back again

Bring it back. Bring it back. Bring it back again

Bring it back again

Come on bring it back again

Bring it back again
