Music by M. Legrand; Lyrics by A. Bergman & M. Bergman

So often as I wait for sleep
I find myself reciting
The words I've said or should have said
Like scenes that need rewriting
The smiles I never answered
Doors perhaps I should have opened
Songs forgotten in the morning
I relieve the roles I've played
The tears I may have squandered
The many pipers I have paid
Along the roads I've wandered
Yet all the time I knew it
Love was somewhere out there waiting
Though I may regret a kiss or two
If I had changed a single day
What went amiss or went stray
I may have never found my way to you
If I had changed a single day
What went amiss or went stray
I may have never found my way to you
I wouldn't change a thing that happened
On my way to you

Till I Loved you
M. Yeston

Nothing lived, nothing grew
Till I loved you
Every sky ever grey
Never blue
You were my friend
Good friend
And sometimes I would wonder
Could the one to save me
Possibly be you?
I was lost, I was blind
Till I loved you
Wouldn't see, couldn't find

Someone new
You were my friend
Dear friend
I held you close to my heart
But I never thought that I'd feel the way I do
Until that certain moment
When I loved you
And now I can't ever imagine
My living without you
It seems I spend all of my time
Thinking only about you
Once I dreamed
In a dream
I would find you
Never thought that the dream would come true
Until that curtain lifted
Parts, drifted
From you
When I loved you
Certain moment
When I loved you
Till I loved you
Never blue
Empty days, empty nights
Sometimes I wonder
Could the one to save me
Possibly be you?
Oooooohh I lost
I was blind till I found you
Couldn't see, couldn't find
Someone new
You came along, stole my heart completely
And I thought, could the one to save me
Possibly be you?
