Jivin' woman, it's time you changed your way Hey, I'm talkin' to you jivin' woman, it's time you changed your way Well you better hurry baby, someone else will take your place

Seven days in a week, not one you stay at home Seven days in a week baby and not one you stay at home
What you doin' jivin' woman, baby you know that I know is wrong

I heard some people talkin', and I heard them all say That all you wanted me for, was to give you all a my pay
But now you're tellin' me, not a word they say is true Well you better be right jivin' woman, 'cause I'll do something to you Jivin' woman, I done told you change your way Well you better hurry baby, someone else will take your
place
