You try to play me out
And I tell you straight
This chick ain't gonna work that way
No matter what you say
I'm walkin' away
Find a new homie
'Cause I'm out (baby, baby)

[CHORUS]

You gotta think straight
You can't just go wait
I ain't gonna go
The way you want me to
You have to think again
You gotta try your hand
At gettin' me back
If you want to work like that

So come on, baby
Show me what you've made
You gotta try harder
If you wanna keep this shot at her
If you wanna play like that
I'll show you where it's at
This is how I tact
I know you're all black

[CHORUS]

Oh, oh, oh
Is this how you work?
Oh, oh, oh
I can't handle that
Oh, oh, oh
Try again
Try again
I wanna test your hand

You think you'll handle this?
Well, that's a hit and miss
You ain't gonna take me down

You're gonna face the crowd
As the coward you are
You ain't gonna get that far
So, try again
Try again

[CHORUS]

There's a reason
I see you as treason
You go betray my trust
Think that it's all in lust
Well, I have news for you
I ain't takin' that, boo
You need to think again
That's a place I've already been

I wanna a new game
I wanna keep you tame
But that's so won't work
I'll have to ditch this jerk
So get out my face
I'll find another place
And you'll be fightin'
To get me tryin'
To take you back
Honey, it won't work like that

[CHORUS]
