Another small town cat with a million dollar fetish
Learned my first lesson in jail from a peasant
Always seem pleasant, happy to be present
Said he past due, he shouldn't have been in the essence

Streets is like your girl, treat it like your wife
You can flirt around with drugs but don't hit the pipe
You can mess around with guns but death ain't right
Hold your breath, next step 'cause life ain't right

If you with the wrong cats then your cyph ain't tight
Stylez hit the darkside, show 'em the light
Life ended to the ice that freezes m.c.'s
Friend of the flame, burn 'em in one game

Tell Oxygen, he not hoppin' in
But he a little time nigga, I ain't thinkin' of stoppin' him
Catch up first, you stretch up worse than them
Been experts and done less work than them

With no album, we net worth more than them
These cats didn't think that the Lox could do it Got a hundred different styles that will guide you through it
I'm the ghost of this shit, I provide you fluid

Never crack sidewalks or ride the sewers
You got some fly shit but my shit
Is like the whole city fallin' out the sky bitch
Loud tracks, I'm the quiet loud ass
Quick to set it off on your fuckin' foul ass

Make six digits eight and cop a palace
Make every rapper sick and call me malice
Y'all niggas would never know what the Stylez have Some shit in the stash that would crack a cow's back

In a hundred pieces in they ass and how's that?
Never answer back, I'm the cancer on the track
Just think, I could blink
And make the Pink Panther black

Who's not to be fucked with? That's me
Who's to be fucked with? That's them
Why don't you watch my back while I go ask them?
And if they want beef later on I splash them
And if they want to flow, right now I thrash them
Should I give it to them new style or old fashion?

Who's not to be fucked with? That's me
Who's to be fucked with? That's them
Why don't you watch my back while I go ask them?
And if they want beef later on I splash them
And if they want to flow, right now I thrash them
Should I give it to them new style or old fashion?

Do I have to break down the walls? Stay off the floor
I'm the general dog, I start the war, make every m.c.
never spit again
When I leave 'em empty, no guts, no chest, no brain, no game
And Stylez go broke, I'm a rob the folk train, I feel no pain, steal cocaine

Fuck black thugs that run through whole gangs
Anytime that I want it nigga, better listen
The blunt is the magic wand, I'm the magician
Stylez is the virus, ain't no physician

With an anecdote that can stop my collision
Before you start askin', I'm a start splashin'
When I come through, it's like ten planes crashin'
Twenty ships, full of thugs, all of them is bastards

Mashed up, lookin' through binocs 'bout to crash in What's the next issue? Sheek did official
Called Steven Spielberg, cops get tissue
So you can rock in the sky when feds come and get you

Next question is where NASA at?
We need a hundred g's, can fly, when traffic's bad
When we down on the craps, we plasmic gats
Tellin' you now you can't fuck with Dinero
Got a lot of space when it seem real narrow
Sagittarius style, spittin' out arrows
Hundred at a time, killin' a hundred heroes

Who's not to be fucked with? That's me
Who's to be fucked with? That's them
Why don't you watch my back while I go ask them?
And if they want beef later on I splash them
And if they want to flow, right now I thrash them

Should I give it to them new style or old fashion?

Who's not to be fucked with? That's me

Who's to be fucked with? That's them

Why don't you watch my back while I go ask them?

And if they want beef later on I splash them

And if they want to flow, right now I thrash them

Should I give it to them new style or old fashion?
