Lately I've been thinking, that I'm sick of the way I'm living I'm awake but I've been sleeping, and it's time I shape it up Cause I won't be caught here living, for myself shut out from the world, yeah let's get out and make a difference
In a world that's needing us

We'll break down all the sorrow
Bring life where there was none
Start living for tomorrow,
and think of the hurting ones
We'll drop this selfish living,
I admit I'm weighed down from Get up and make some noise friend, it's you I'm thinking of. Whoa, Whoa...

I can understand the reason you could think that you can't do much, yeah Cause the message we're receiving, is a lonely helpless one But I won't be caught here thinking, that it's useless to press on, yeah Let's go out and change this place now,
in a world that's needing us

We'll break down all the sorrow
Start living for tomorrow,
and think of the hurting ones
We'll drop this selfish living,
I admit I've weighed down from Get up and make some noise friend,
it's you I'm thinking of. Whoa, Whoa...

(Everyone things of changing the world, but no one thinks of changing himself. ~Leo Nikolaevich Tolstoy)
