

The Lyndsay Diaries

"Lady luck"

If lady luck is on my side
She will be with me tonight,
I barely made this month's rent,
Save a lucky hand of cards
I'll think of something next month.
Four flights down to the street
To a place we agree to meet
And she is there waiting so very patiently

Tonight just celebrate luck,
Tonight for sure.
So I try to live every second of it,
So as not to forget
How I, how I felt.

Always could make you laugh
And I found comfort in that
Old stereo's
Set fire to our ears

Inspired us to put down our nervousness
And forget our fears
Got a bottle full of rum,
We won't stop until we're done
And we forget
You're leaving

Now you're getting on a plane
You'll arrive in Spain,
Such a foreign place
Where they speak in such a foreign tone
It's all foreign to me.

Tonight we'll say goodbye
Tonight for sure
So I try to take a picture
With my mind
So as not to forget
How beautiful, how beautiful,
You are.
