[Killah Priest]

I'm deep into the page
Each stage is like a maze, it's like sperm reaching the egg
I focus on the brain cause it be the enterprise
It's like life within the center of the eye
Send off the soundwaves that abound for days
The atom is surrounded by rays
A frame be the mercury that circles degrees
Developed in strength in Hercules
Wisdom changes my continent
When I quizzed em I fill up the confidence
You burnin me is like tryin to kosher a pig
I teach knowledge and culture the kids
I inject the eye into the depths of the mind
The proper insight gives affects on the blind
See I don't entertain I enter the brain
The Killah Priest always come and represent the name
A daily study stimulates the thought
Correct diet, I meditate with less talk
Makes me deep as the ocean floor
The ink soaks in and I'm prepared to explore
Entities fall like the city of Rome
I'm inspiring like Solomon and witty in the dome

[60 Second Assassin]

Yeah, writing rhymes with a liquid pen
Next to appear be the holy wizard

[Shabazz The Disciple]

Knowledge I obtain is mystic, realistic
It's hittin gems in sins if you missed in Thou have to contain the power to unravel
It's like walkin straight on the edge of the earth without a map to travel
Once false step, you enter the death
Darkness, the triple sage that's brave to the conscious
As I drag your mind off the edge of sanity
I leave you floatin, you have to figure your way back to gravity
Taken beyond the orbits of NASA, it rates much faster

Your chest tightens up like asthma
And you be gaspin for oxygen
Inhalin fatal gas like headed from the hydrogen
Driftin in the wind like a cloud that can't rain
You lack the element so it's relevent to scream
Your brain lacks water like the moon
Dependin on the earth since you first left the womb Words engraved to paralyse you in the mental
Too much weight to analyse the potential

Amounts of pressure that'll tilt your scale
And as for 85's I describe it in braille
The blind language, the deaf and dumb I use sign language
Cause I was blessed to exorcise stress and anguish
Niggas be strainin with they sick styles
I'm splitin atoms and spillin holy water on their conscious
Travellin 186, 000 miles per second
The sound focus on thoughts if you can catch em

[Hell Razah]

Life is hell, hell tells lies in your face
Every other day we're killin off our own race
When you trapped inside hate
It's hard to escape inside of fate's mindstate
Cause you go out like a blind date
Surrounded by danger when you're livin in the world full of anger
The pain I drop just to get you got is a brain strangler
Deadly talk, silent thoughts
I can't overstand when the man wanna live long
And you think too short and destroy it
Payin for your religion when you really can't afford it
I'd rather live like the god instead of dyin for a devil
You couldn't climb this level with a ladder made of knowledge
I demolish, abolish, so don't try to follow
I look into your body in the dark and I could tell you that you're hollow
You're sleepwalkin, blind ass zombie
I hellraise from the grave of ignorance (yo)
Just to finish men lookin guilty of sin

[Prodigal Sunn]

Cryin deep within the mental like dolos intoxicated
I'm restless, rap aggravation, brain of frustration
I can't take it no more as I journey through the halls of hell
Justice prevail, unrighteous will surely fail
Now may my enemies be defeated in the Chamber

Danger facin life full of strife, filled with anger
Forced to enter as an avenger of sin
I roar like the mighty lion as I contrive of Benjamin Experimentin with all types of fuckin gasses
I got the potion to turn your flesh to fuckin acid
At em chatter, now let me start to scatter
Illusion dwellin in past for mental confusion
