Everytime I look at you
I wish you look my way (wish you look my way)
And it flash me that dozen smile that really makes my day But of course it's just a dream a dream that won't come true
And for a required love
I wrote this song for you

I always think of how'd it be
if we were together
you and me holding hands
it's a dream
I can picture it right now
you and me
It's a dream
It's a possibility

When I look out of my window
I hope you look up at me (hope you look up at me) if only you could read my heart my love so true you'll see how empty my life would be if I don't have you
and for a required love

if we were together
you and me holding hands
It's a dream
you and me
It's a dream
It's a possibility

you and me
It's a dream
It's a possibility

you and me

It's a dream
It's a possibility
