I want to be the machine in your hand and go wherever
you go
Your every touch would be my command and I wouldn't be so slow
We'd be together in Wonderland and I'd light you with my glow
I want to be the machine in your hand and go wherever
you go

I don't know why I love you You're not really a person More a gadget with meat stuck to it

I see less and less of you
As you worsen and worsen
I think you're disappearing through it No doubt you're just ahead of the curve
I only wish that I had the nerve to say

I want to be the machine in your hand and go wherever
you go
Your every touch would be my command and I wouldn't be so slow
We'd be together in Wonderland and I'd light you with
my glow
I want to be the machine in your hand and go wherever
you go

You can hold me for hours Wouldn't that be terrific?
We can feel our connection growing

I'll have magical powers Only less scientific
You and I will become all-knowing Such a machine, what would it be worth?
Sitck with me kid, we'll conquer the earth

I want to be the machine in your hand and go wherever
you go
Your every touch would be my command and I wouldn't
be so slow

my glow
I want to be the machine in your hand and go wherever
you go
