The Maine
"Washroom Color"

So let it slide, all the things that I Have running in my mind will all be gone in time Remember son, all the things you've done, and all the things you've lost, and everything you've won

We're just trying to find some color in this black and white world

Tell me everything will be alright
Walk this way with me into the night
You can let it slide, just for the night
Just know that everyone, we all feel fucked up sometimes

So take your time, things will be just fine
To bite the hands that feeds, 'cause nothing's ever mine

Just wait your turn, and always try to learn To love the ones who don't show love in return

We're just trying to find some color in this black and
white world

Tell me everything will be alright
Walk this way with me into the night
You can let it slide, just for the night
sometimes

Fucked up sometimes, yeah
