I remember every night we spent on weekends,
With good friends.
We did nothing but it seems like we did so much,
Back then.
Oh back then we were kickin' and laughin',
All relaxin' and takin' things for granted.
We did anything for just that little rush.
Oh yeah.

Just don't forget this,
We won't regret this.
We've got one chance to get it right.

We're alive and we drive to the center of it,
Where we know we're all fine and this just can't be it.
And in the end we all know we only breathe for so long,
So tonight's the night,
We all roll along.

Oh back to our first cigarette and no we can't forget,
All of the faces that we met.
81, 23.
Means everything to me.
Oh take me back to the parking lots
The sleep we fought and all the places we got caught.
This place'll always be a part of me.
Yeah, you're all a part of me.
Just don't forget this,
We won't regret this.
We've got one chance to get it right.

We're alive and we drive to the center of it,
Where we know we're all fine and this just can't be it.
And in the end we all know we only breathe for so long,
So tonight's the night,
We all roll along.

I remember every day that I spent dreamin' of leavin',
This place behind I would run away from thinkin'.
Adding up all the days spent wasted,
Chasing the girls we hated.
Some things, they, they never change.

Take me back to the sleepless nights,
The stupid fights,
It never matter who was wrong or who was right.
You're all a part of me.

We're alive and we drive to the center of it,
Where we know we're all fine and this just can't be it.
And in the end we all know we only breathe for so long,
So tonight's the night,
We all roll along.
