Hey my sister where have you been?
I've been looking all over for you in this world where we don't fit in Hey my brother where have you gone?
I've been trying to recognize your face in this world where we don't belong There's a light that shines on everyone
It shines on me and it shines on you-one day I will see it through

Hey that is what I say-we're gonna try to find a new way Hey that's what I see-a Northwest Passage for you and me

Hey my comrade strike a pose for me Overheard you talking about resistance and other things that might set is free Hey my lover cuddle up inside I wanna kiss you then I wanna hold you then I wanna make you mine tonight

Hey that is what I say-we're gonna try to find a new way
Hey that's what I see-a Northwest Passage for you and

I blow my mind for you every day
Turn on your love lights and let them shine on me
