I've got a problem how to spend my time been subjugated to nothing for so long that nothing's really on my mind gotta make the connections between force of habit and habit of force and when I get it, you know I'll get it, I'll know just what I want

all we ever wanted was just everything, all we ever needed was just everyone
this is a small demand, it's a small demand,
this is a small demand, it's a small demand
all we ever wanted was just everything,
all we ever needed was just everyone
this is a small demand, it's a small demand,
this is a small demand, it's a small demand yeah baby I can't believe that we are grateful for the shit we receive

I've got a problem, a matter of direction a question of needing the real things, or just the reality of need this control in motion, which hunger are you trying to feed
'cause baby what you want isn't always what you need

all we ever wanted was just everything,
all we ever needed was just everyone
this is a small demand, it's a small demand,
this is a small demand, it's a small demand
all we ever wanted was just everything,
all we ever needed was just everyone
this is a small demand, it's a small demand,
this is a small demand, it's a small demand

yeah baby I can't believe that we are grateful for the

all we ever wanted was just everything,
all we ever needed was just everyone

this is a small demand, it's a small demand,
this is a small demand, it's a small demand
all we ever wanted was just everything,
all we ever needed was just everyone
this is a small demand, it's a small demand,
this is a small demand, it's a small demand
