Is there a question about it? Do you feel sentimental yet?
What are you communicating? Hey please can you tell me that?
I got seduced by a preacher, I was blind but now I can see
I'm going to show those bastards the same respect that they are showing me

If we spend our whole lives bending
What do you think that we'll get?
What are you trying so hard to understand?
Isn't the structure obvious yet?

Yeah if we are so righteous, where is the action to our concern?
Do you think that the moral light that guides us will be same to make the powers turn?
I got seduced by an impulse, I got a bigger need to feel
Your definition of love baby it doesn't satisfy me

If we spend our whole lives bending
What do you think that we'll get?
What are you trying so hard to understand?
Isn't the structure obvious yet?

Your dead language of love

Hey I don't mind breaking Starbucks windows cause it's more fun
Than waiting around for better days to come
Hey I can envision more radical times, no more just waiting around
