Rob the innocence, just like small boys playing naked in the rain come on Keys to unlock pretty much what you want, my heart and everything
A feeble gesture, like writing king mob or black mask on the wall
I stay focused but you, you can stay indoors come on Yeah, steal the plan, a hundred thoughts focused all in discontent
A new heatwave, a total meltdown of your bourgeoisie ways
An open invitation of seduction, destruction and all between
A new dream, a brand new language full of silent screams
I swear we can make it Come on come on - come right on - I swear, i do - if you do too
I swear, I do - just about - with you - yeaaaahh
