Last century promised so much
But look at us now when we are all grown up
Last century promised so much
But our heroes are all dead or corrupt
Last century promised so much
But our roles have all become outdated
Last century promised so much
And our ideas are all just second-rated

As radical as we want to be no shame or anxiety in our dreams
Playing the part of selling discontent but we are as real as it's going to get

Last century promised so much
Like cheap salvation through rock'n roll
Last century promised so much
Like a million new ways to save our souls
Last century promised so much
But here we are still waiting for some kind of reward
Last century promised so much Cause here we are unsatisfied and bored

But what did become of borrowed intellect and stolen
pose Dismantling the power with the rules it sets but we are as real as it's going to get

So we destroy ourselves every night
With the intention of salvation in sight
We know that this is all that you are going to see Cause we are as real as real can be
We know all this feels fake And how much more of this can we take Cause essence is nowhere and nothing is real

dreams
Playing the part of selling discontent but we are as real
as it's going to get

But what did become of borrowed intellect and stolen
as real as it's going to get
