You can choke on easyways while we stay up every night and every day Doesn't matter what you say because your ways are all so fucking lame We're all coming over while we watch you take your pills and we watch you fall asleep We're all going to dig the sound of the new beat

There's no way that you're going to make it out of here in time
Only lovers are going to be left alive

Feel that heat that we are all talking about, a realization of our wildest schemes Your lack of passion and your lack of dreams pretty much made you obsolete No more sitting down, shutting up, taking shit, we could never dream of it

Yeah, and we're all going to scream about it Yeah, and the kids are finally going to reign Yeah, get rid of all the adults cause they couldn't take the strain

There's no way that you're going to make it out of here
in time

You can choke on easyways while we stay up every
night and every day Doesn't matter what you say because today your traditions are completely dead

Yeah, we're all coming over Yeah, the old ways are going down Yeah, we're dying of laughter Yeah, while we dig the new sound
