wait a second will everything turn out fine will we get what we're promised or are we just wasting our time tell me something, tell me something, tell me something,
what about living right now
'cause I can't believe that this is what we wanna be we feel it right now, but baby it's not for me we feel it right now, it's time to get up and leave the dream is over,
the dream is over you see it's not coming back to me just a minute it's not the life we wanted to get it comes a little too late or baby we can't afford it maybe someday, maybe someday, maybe someday we won't be living as slaves
'cause I can't believe that this is what we wanna be
we feel it right now, but baby it's not for me
we feel it right now, it's time to get up and leave
the dream is over,
we feel it right now, but baby it's not for me
we feel it right now, it's time to get up and leave the dream is over, the dream is over, the dream is over the dream is over you see it's not coming back to me, it's not coming back to me
