in every breath there is a promise of better days to come in every whisper there's reassurance that I am not the only one
'cause I don't want to have to wait forever, I want freedom on this side of heaven we feel the earth shake as we move, we wanna taste the sensation and there's no limit to what we can do, now we've made the connections it's finally coming the changing weather that we've been fighting for first a great storm then a sunrise, could we ask for more?
'cause I don't want to have to wait forever to find it, I want freedom on this side of heaven I'm blinded
we feel the earth shake as we move,
and there's no limit to what we can do,
now we've made the connections
we feel the earth shake, we feel the earth shake
we feel the earth shake as we move,
and there's no limit to what we can do,
now we've made the connections
we feel the earth shake as we move,
and there's no limit to what we can do,
