Hey, did somebody break your heart
With a careless word?
Did someone tear your life apart
Never knowin' you were hurt?

Or did somebody try to break you
In two for a laugh to see what you would do?
Well, if someone broke your heart
Let me fix it up for you

Anyone could look into your eyes
And see what you've been through
But now you've got to realize
There's just one broken heart, not two

It's only happenin' to you, it's true
Don't you know what he would do?
He's out havin' some fun
While you stay at home havin' none

He doesn't even know, he doesn't even care
It doesn't even matter if you're even there

Step out, step out on him tonight
Step out, step out, step out with me, now
Let me fix it up for you

Step out, step out, step out on him, girl
Step out, step out with me, now
Let me fix it up for you

He doesn't even know, he doesn't even care
It doesn't even matter if you're even there

Tonight, step out, step out with me, girl
Let me fix it up for you
Step out, step out, step out
