We had fallen away, steady drifting beyond come to take you today, only we don't belong

if we lean on it, who will follow don't rely on it, she can't swallow there's a buy on it, gone tomorrow forever no one wants us to blame (we don't listen) can't you leave us alone (just don't turn away) we just want you to go away (oh~) fit you liked to believe (whatever we take)

there's a buy on it, gone tomorrow forever
(if we lean on it, who will follow)

who gave permission to take as will meet at the feet we understand you only we don't listen anymore

don't rely on it, she can't swallow
(if we lean on it, who will follow)

if we lean on it, who will follow
there's a buy on it, gone tomorrow forever
if we lean on it, gone tomorrow forever
if we lean on it, gone tomorrow forever
