"The Loneliness Is Gone"

Can you keep a secret,
And just as weak as you.
Afraid of living without you,
Afraid of dying out of love.

It's a new thing I have for you,
I'm alone.
But the loneliness is gone.

Some kind of space we live in,
Emptiness grows from inside.
On our own we are weightless,
With you I stand the ground.

Always be a better half of me,
It's a new thing I have for you,
I'm alone.
But the loneliness is gone.
The loneliness is gone.
