Noth the first time I saw you
But I knew we meant to spend some time
Half a day then half a life time pass by Until now I never knew for who

For you, my dear
The promises I made I made for you, my dear
As close as one can get I go to you, my dear
And you should know

I won't let you down this time
I won't let you down this time

This is our time for all times
Starting from today
Oh, it takes us to the sky they say
Then putting us on feet again

There were bad times
Never been so lonely
Been in the house alone that time
You just let me go, I tried to scream
Words ran out like sand
Now we talk again, it's better
And you should know

I won't let you down this time, no, no
I won't let you down this time
I won't let you down, no
I won't let you down
