"Tides"

I felt it in the wind, I saw it in the skies
A fading smile and words that were all lies
It all came creeping, feels like a disease
A perfect picture, now that's smashed to pieces
Smashed to pieces

I can't get up, I'm so far down
The tides are rising, I feel myself drown
You flooded my world, took every breath from me
I'm at the bottom, buried, dead at sea

You turned your back and ran before the storm
My world is flooded, the green fields are gone
My lungs are giving up, can't take this anymore
I'm in this underworld where nothing's like before

Where were you when I needed you the most
My dams collapsed, I'm nothing but a ghost
[x2]

The waters are coming closer
Soon my life will be beneath
My body is cold, I can no longer breathe
The sun is gone, the day is at its end

The lights are fading, fading away
I'll never see the sun again

I can't get up, I'm so far down
The tides are rising, I feel myself drown
You flooded my world, took every breath from me
I'm at the bottom, buried, dead at sea

Dead at sea, dead at sea, dead at sea, dead at sea
