"Thrilling To Me"

The past is now a life far away
A distant memory
A faded brow the vision is not gone
A life so incomplete
So now

Chorus
Now I'm sitting here all alone
Now I'm wondering how this went on
It all went on

Broken table, chairs, a broken home
A cold broken heart
Broken promises, broken records
How did it all start
So now

Chorus
Is this the price to pay for love
The agony and strife
Bloody, bruised and thrown about
This cannot be my life

A brand new life was born today
Innocent and sweet
She makes my day, she saved my life
Now time's healing me
But for now

Chorus
