The story's so familiar
We've heard it all before
Some days it seems
Like nothing's sacred anymore

Despite the best intentions
Somewhere along the road
We've come to take for granted
This truth that we know

May we never forget
The cross and the blood
The price that was paid
So that we might live

May we never forget
The cost of this love
He'll never forsake us
He'll always forgive
May we never forget

So let us decide right here, right now
To refresh our memory
Of how it felt to be lost
And how it feels to be free

May we never forget
The cross and the blood
The price that was paid
So that we might live

May we never forget
The cost of this love
He'll never forsake us
He'll always forgive

May we never forget
The grace of our God
The wealth of His mercy outpoured

Forgive us, Lord
Forgive us if we ever forget

Your cross and Your blood
The life that You gave
So that we might live

May we never forget
The cost of Your love
You'll never forsake us
You'll always forgive
May we never, never ever forget
