As I look into the mirror
I know I wouldn't be here if not for You
When I caused You so much pain
And You could've turned away, Your faith held true

When my life had turned to ashes
And my dreams went up in smoke
You were the constant line
My only source of hope

You saved me at each and every turn
As I stood frozen on the bridges I would burn
You saved me when I was my own worst enemy
Your love is the key that set me free, Lord, You saved me

When I look up at the cross
And consider all it cost, I stand amazed
Then I'm driven to my knees
'Cause my mind cannot conceive Your endless grace

You know the very number
Every hair upon my head
You loved me and You chose me
Before I took my first breath

You saved me at each and every turn
As I stood frozen on the bridges I would burn
You saved me when I was my own worst enemy
Your love is the key that set me free, Lord, You saved me

You saved me at each and every turn
As I stood frozen on the bridges I would burn
You saved me when I was my own worst enemy
Your love is the key that set me free, You saved me
