Well, I work all night and day to try and please you
To buy the things I never could afford
And now the wells run dry for me so I must leave you
But I don't care if you love me anymore

Well, you go out on the town with eyes of cheating
To see a world you've never see before
But my heart was always there to take a beating
I don't care if you love me anymore

And you never show the slightest bit of heartache
When I told you I was leaving you for good
Well, you tried to justify what you did always
Somethings are better left than understood

Now the world keeps turning when we're not together
My troubles have all been washed ashore
But I'll sail the seven seas and then I'll end up knowing
I don't care if you love me anymore

And you never show the slightest bit of heartache
Oh, when I told you, I told you, I told you I was leaving you
You tried to justify what you did always
Somethings are better left than understood

Now the world keeps turning when we're not together
My troubles have all been washed ashore
But I'll sail the seven seas and then I'll end up knowing
I don't care if you love me anymore

I don't care if you love me anymore
I don't care if you love me anymore
