Deecie, don't you need me?
Nothing more would please me
Every little smile I fake
Tryin' not to look your way
Please, no one remind me
Deecie, don't you need me?
Lay down here beside me
You know your man is second rate
I am gonna take his place
Please, love, don't deny me
There is something you must understand
You are gonna have to leave your man
Here I am darlin' take my hand
You're gonna have to leave your man
Oh Denise
You're the only thing I need
Oh Denise
You're the only thing I need
Deecie, don't forget me
Please, love, don't regret me
Every little sigh or shake
I could make it better babe
Please just don't deny me
Oh Denise
You're the only thing I need
Oh Denise
You're the only thing I need
