Alone in my room
I switch on the tube
And wave at the screen
It stares back at me
So I turn to the sky
Watch as it dries
Just waiting in here
For the car to appear

When we're together the world smiles
And when we're together it feels right
We went for the future and it seems
When where together, my co-star and me

Your plane is delayed
So I'll walk from the gates
But when you appear
I'll stick to your teeth
And we'll stumbled outside
And dance in the sunlight
Like ice in the sun
We'll melt into one

When we're together the world smiles
When we're together it feels right
We went for the future and it seems
When where together, my co-star and me

When we're together the planets align
When we're together I burn from the inside
We'll live on forever in this insanity
When where together, my co-star and me

Do-do-do-do x5

When we're together the world smiles
And when we're together it feels right
We live for the future and it seems
When where together, my co-star and me

When where together the planets align

And when we're together the stars don't shine
We'll live on forever in this insanity
When where together, my co-star and me
