My heart goes overload
by the times you never touched me
My heart goes overload
By the times you're never there
Still there's questions in my mind
Did you really want me
Or did you just need someone who would care

My trip is gone somewhere
I don't know it could be a dessert
And I am scared that I will never to return
Still there's questions in my mind
Should I even bother
In my dessert it's easy to get burned

[Chorus]
But my heart still moves
By the way you never touched me
And my heart still moves
By the way you say my name
And my heart still moves
By the way you softly whisper
And my heart still moves
And you're asleep

The way You're lookin at me
I was shoved six feet under
The Way you're lookin at me what more did you expect Cause I
I feel I should run away
And make silence of the thunder is it too much to ask for a piece of your respect

[Chorus]
Cause my heart still moves
By the way you never touched me
And my heart still moves
By the way you say my name
And my heart still moves
By the way you softly whisper

And my heart still moves
And you're asleep

Could be just a fase we're going through
Is this to hard for me and you
Well I
I don't know what else I can do
But if nothing changes you and me are through.

[Chours]
Cause my heart still moves
By the way you never touched me
And my heart still moves
By the way you say my name
And my heart still moves
By the way you softly whisper
And my heart still moves
And you're asleep
