Chorus: John Mayer] + (Kanye West)

Bittersweet

You're going to be the death of me

I don't want you, but I need you

I love you, hate you at the very same time

Bittersweet

(See what I want so much shit never hurt so bad)

(Never did this before, that's what the verdict said)

(We've been generally wrong, that's what the circuit says)

(God talk to me now, this is an emergency)

(Verse 1)

And she claims she's only with me for the common say

You cut me deep bitch, cut me like surgery

And I was too proud to admit that it was hurting me

I'd never do that to you, at least purposely

We breaking up again, we making up again

But we don't love no more, I guess we fucking then

Have you ever felt you want to kill her?

And you mixed them emotions with tequila

And you mixed that with a little bad advice on one of those bad nights you have a bad fight

And you talk about a family, her aunts and shit

And she say "Motherfucker your mommas a bitch."

You know, the messy drama shit, all the additude

I'd never hit a girl, but I'll shake the shit out of you

But I'm gonna be the bigger man

Big pimping like Jiggy man, oh I guess I figure it's..

[Chorus]

[Verse 2]

And my niggas said "I shouldn't let it worry me"

I need to focus on the girls we getting currently

But I been thinking that they got me back to sinking

And this relationship got me back to drinking

Now this hennessey it's going to be the death of me

And I alway's thought that you having my child was our destiny, but I can't even vibe with you sexually

Cause everytime I'd try you would question me

Saying "You fucking them girls, disrespecting me you don't see how your lies is affecting me you don't see how life was supposed to be and I never let a nigga get that close to me and you ain't cracked up to what you were supposed to be you always gonna be what them ho's will be."
And this the first time she ever spilled her soul to me
Bittersweet (I fucked up and I know it G) You're going to be the death of me (I guess it's bittersweet poetry)
I don't want you, but I need you
I love you, hate you at the very same time

[Chorus]

See what I want so much shit never hurt so bad
Never did this before, that's what the verdict said
We've been generally wrong, that's what the circuit says
God talk to me now, this is an emergency (Repeat 2X)

[Chorus]
