What do you get when you fall in love
What do you get when you crash and burn Lessons learned about yesterday will never be forgotten never ever thrown away you may find yourself where you thought you dropped you of

When I'm down down down down down can you pick
me up
When I'm feeling sad and grey can you make it stop
When I'm thinking hard about yesterday
What used to be the present has already flown away
When I'm down down down down down can you pick
me up

Come and pick me up

What do you get when you never learn What do you get when life takes a turn
You may find yourself in the same situation Learn from the past and avoid the allegations
You may find yourself where you thought you dropped
you of

When I'm down down down down down can you pick
me up
When I'm feeling sad and grey can you make it stop
When I'm thinking hard about yesterday
What used to be the present has already flown away
When I'm down down down down down can you pick
me up

Come and pick me up

You may think to yourself man it can't be that hard Then why am I rolling rouches out of my businesscards
You may think to yourself man whats there to say Don't say anything you wont help me anyway Come and pick me up come and pick me up

When I'm down down down down down can you pick
me up
When I'm feeling sad and grey can you make it stop
When I'm thinking hard about yesterday
What used to be the present has already flown away
When I'm down down down down down can you pick
me up

Come and pick me up
