You want to run, but you're too afraid to leave
You said you have faith but not enough to leave
Back and forth you go back and forth again
It wears you down and it ties your hands
No more running
Search is over
Your salvation
Has brought you back to life

Child wipe your tears away cause Jesus cares for you
He knows you're hurting and all you're going through
Won't you try just test your faith and see
You'll walk the oceans and believe He's right thereby
your side oh child

Out of place is where you find yourself without a trace
You send an S.O.S. for help
No more running the search is over
Your salvation has brought you back to life...

Child wipe your tears away cause Jesus cares for you
He knows you're hurting and all you're going through
Won't you try just test your faith and see
You'll walk the oceans and believe He's right thereby
your side oh child
