Girls will be girls, boys will be boys

One day they're lovers

And you know the next day

They're fighting one another

They'll work it out between them two

They'll kiss and make up

Oh, you know lovers always do now

They're in a problem they can't solve now

Oh, don't you get yourself involved, baby

They may argue with each other now

Oh, but [Incomprehensible]

You know they'll work it out now

Between them two

They'll kiss and make up

I know 'cos lovers all always do

Girls will be girls, boys will be boys

One day they're lovers

And you know the next day

They're fighting one another

They'll work it out between them two

They'll kiss and make up

Lovers always do

Girls will be girls, boys will be boys

One day they're lovers
