When I awoke today
It was morning time
It seems as though it starts
Though I'm not around

I'm a dyslexic you know my kind
When I didn't know you
I couldn't quite figure it out

It was my mind against matter
But that was then
Now I'm elected
I'm looking straight into your heart

When I awoke today
It was morning time
It seems as though it starts
Though I'm not around

You've been neglected
The see-through kind
But if I didn't see you
I was looking straight down at my feet

If you felt rejected, please excuse
Cause now you're elected
You're looking straight into my heart

When I awoke today
It was morning time
It seems as though it starts
Though I'm not around
