Here I'm sitting under blue skies
Writing songs about it
Yeah now I try to put my words
To how my eyes take in it
But I'm not myself
I'm gone

Sometimes I tell you about my feelings
And I really mean it
If you and me we've got a problem
We can talk about it
But I'm self
I'm gone

I'm not myself
I'm not myself
I'm not myself
I'm someone else

When it comes to making plans
I've got plenty of them
I even speak about the future
As if I was in it
But now I'm sleeping in the moonlight
And in my dreams I wake up
To someone calling out my name
But I won't care to answer
'Cause I'm not myself
I'm gone

I'm not myself
I'm not myself
I'm not myself
I'm someone else

Yeah I'm not myself
I'm somebody else
