Fifteen people in a crowded room
Fifteen people in a silent room
Tension builds up and it fills the air
Knowing there is someone
Missing here

Like a jewel
Bumping down the stairs
We've been moving on
So let us pray
In celebration of a special mind
And for a friendship
Of a certain kind

For the many
Who have been here before
There's so many letting it go

It's golden - what we have
It's golden - can we realise that
Can we realise
That it shines and it's golden
It's shining - all the thoughts
That we've had
It's sparkling - down the roads
On our map
And when we realise that
We shine 'till tomorrow

We've been going in
And out of style
Always guaranteed to raise a smile
If someone tells us we're
No longer alive
Think we could show them
What is in our eyes

Here's to the many
And there's so many letting it go
