I've been hearing these rumours
All over town
They say you broke up with Jesus
Cause he's been letting you down
I'm not sure of all the facts
But I know it wasn't him

Now we're in the midst of
Escaping our past
We wanna stick with the old
But then we're moving too fast
If you're not sure of all the facts
Let's just say it wasn't us

Say oh say everybody
Say we're leaving
For another day
Saved oh saved by the body
And saved we're leaving
For another day

I caught a glimpse in my eye
A tunnel in my mind
I hope it's coming this way
No it's none of that kind
I'm not sure where it came from
Let's just say that it was him

Say oh say everybody
Say we're leaving
For another day
Saved oh saved by the body
And saved we're leaving
For another day
