The early morning sun lit up her room
But it wasn't just a change in the weather
She'd read it in her stars
And now she felt it in her heart
Life was gonna start getting better

And there was a time when she would pray
That each teardrop that rolled down her face
Would represent a day of pain for him
But she's changing the way she feels
About wasting her time and tears

She's cried out, cried out, cried out, cried out
She's cried out, cried out, cried out, cried out

And all the tricks and all the lies
He tried to pull over her eyes
Kept running through her mind
She looks back in disbelief in confusion and in grief
At what his secrecy was revealing

You can scream into your pillow, you can pray into the night
But you can't switch off your feelings
Like you'd switch out a light
But she's changing the way she feels
About wasting her time and tears

Cried out, cried out, cried out
She's cried out, cried out, cried out, cried out

And now these winter skies, turn blue and bright
And she feels alive and wants to drink every kiss
Make up for what she's missed and wipe him out of her mind
Some day he'll have to grow up and come clean
And listen to the screams of his own conscience

Cried out, cried out, cried out
She's cried out, cried out, cried out, cried out

She's cried out, cried out, cried out, cried out

She's cried out, cried out, cried out, cried out

And she'll not hear a sound
