day in, day out
concrete walls
they're blue and cold
i'm falling

stare up and down
a concrete wall
i'm not myself
i'm falling

i know
i don't have to stay here
i'll go
just when i like
i don't ever get to play here
and everybody seems too uptight

don't you wake me out of my bed
before it's time
cause i can't see the sunrise
i'm right behind the fine line

day in, day out
concrete walls
steel blue and cold

stare up and down
these concrete walls
i'm not myself

i know
just when i like

before it's time

i'm right behind the fine line
