Honey, we've been friends
For a long, long time
And you said what was yours
It was partly mine
Well, I will share with you
Until the end of time
But when it comes to my man, comes to my man
Honey, we've just gotta draw the line

Borrow my brand-new dress
I swear that I don't mind
If money is what you need,
Take my last dime
'Cause I will share with you
Until the end of time
But when it comes to my man, comes to my man
Honey, we've just gotta draw the line

[Bridge:]
Never thought too much
About the way you smile at him
Till Saturday night at the party
I caught you singing for him
Hey!

And we've been friends, girl
For such a long, long time
At least you've got to know
That the boy is mine-oh-mine!
Though I will share with you
Until the end of time
But when it comes to my man, comes to my man
Honey, we've just gotta draw the line

Honey, we've been friends
For a long, long time
And you said what was yours
It was partly mine
Well, I will share with you
Until the end of time
But when it comes to my man, comes to my man

Honey, we've just gotta draw the line
But when it comes to my man, comes to my man
Honey, we've just gotta draw the line...
